

ensure that appropriate safeguards exist for protecting any party who appeals a "material supervisory determination" from retaliation by agency examiners.

Responsibilities of the Ombudsman. The OTS believes that the proper role of the Ombudsman under Section 309 is to act as a facilitator and mediator for the resolution of complaints. The Ombudsman will ensure that complaints about OTS regulatory actions are addressed in a fair and timely manner. The Ombudsman's major function is to provide assistance as a liaison with the thrift industry and the public on issues, concerns or problems that they may have in dealing with the OTS. The OTS Ombudsman reports directly to the Director.

Handling of Complaints. When a problem is brought to the attention of the Ombudsman for which there is an existing avenue of appeal on the merits or another appropriate forum for resolution, the Ombudsman will explain the process or forum for resolution, and direct the party to the appropriate appeals process or forum for the dispute. The OTS's regulations provide existing mechanisms for resolutions of disputes in many instances, such as: prompt corrective action directives under Section 38 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act; denials or partial denials of Freedom of Information or Privacy Act requests; issuance of capital directives; and supervisory decisions and examination findings; application decisions; and matters within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Treasury's Inspector General or Federal or State investigatory or prosecutorial authorities.

Where an established appeals process or forum may not be available to resolve a dispute or if a party has a complaint with regard to the process, the Ombudsman will meet with the appropriate OTS official, or arrange a meeting between the complainant and the appropriate OTS official and attempt to resolve the problem. If the Ombudsman believes a problem or complaint has not been satisfactorily addressed, the Ombudsman may raise the matter with a higher level official and/or the Director for resolution.

Safeguards. Section 309(d)(2)(B) of the CDRIA requires that the Ombudsman ensure that safeguards exist to encourage complainants to come forward and preserve confidentiality. In the OTS's view, the OTS's existing avenues for appeal or complaints, the Ombudsman's authority to compel meetings with appropriate OTS officials at all levels in Washington, D.C. and the regions, as well as the authority of the Ombudsman to review complaints of retaliation, should encourage complainants to come forward.

All information and materials utilized in the Ombudsman's review of a complaint shall be used only for purposes of the review and not disclosed outside of the Ombudsman's office, except to appropriate reviewing officials or with appropriate authorization. The Ombudsman will honor requests to keep confidential the identity of a complaining party. It must be recognized, however, that the resolution of certain complaints (such as complaints of retaliation against an individual institution) may not be possible should the identity of the complainant remain confidential. In such cases, the Ombudsman will discuss the circumstances limiting confidentiality with the complaining party involved. The OTS believes these provisions should assist in preserving the confidentiality of complainants and the Ombudsman function.

Retaliation. The Ombudsman is authorized to receive complaints of retaliation against a party as a result of utilizing the Ombudsman or any existing avenue of appeal or complaint forum. Upon receiving a complaint of retaliation, the Ombudsman will investigate the supervisory basis for the alleged retaliatory conduct. Upon completion of the review, the Ombudsman will report any findings of retaliation to the Director of OTS with a recommendation for remedial action to protect the complainant. A finding of retaliation will be referred to the Chief Counsel, for possible disciplinary action against the OTS employee who retaliated.

Procedures. A party may contact the Ombudsman at any time regarding a problem resulting from the regulatory activities of the OTS by calling (202) 906-5685 or writing to: Ombudsman, Office of Thrift Supervision, 1700 G Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20552. John F. Downey, Executive Director, Supervision.

Culturally Significant Objects Imported for Exhibition; Determination

Notice is hereby given of the following determination: Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Act of October 19, 1965 (79 Stat. 985, 22 U.S.C. 2459), Executive Order 12047 of March 27, 1978 (43 F.R. 13359, March 29, 1978), and Delegation Order No. 85-5 of June 27, 1985 (50 F.R. 27393, July 2, 1985), I hereby determine that the objects to be included in the exhibit, "From Court Jews to the Rothschilds: Art, Patronage and Power 1600-1800" (See list ¹), imported from abroad for the temporary exhibition without profit within the United States, are of cultural significance. These objects are imported pursuant to a loan agreement with the foreign lenders. I also determine that the exhibition or display of the listed exhibit objects at the Jewish Museum in New York City from on or about September 8, 1996, through January 19, 1997, is in the national interest. Public Notice of this determination is ordered to be published in the Federal Register.

Dated: July 10, 1996.

Les Jin,

General Counsel.
