Agency Information Collection Activities: Proposed Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Notice of information collection under review; Survey to examine the relationship between juvenile delinquency and gang and nongang affiliation of Southeast Asian refugee youths.

Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval is being sought for the information collection listed below. This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register and allowed 60 days for public comment.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register.

This process is conducted in accordance with 5 Code of Federal Regulation, Part 1320.10. Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the item(s) contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to the Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Department of Justice Desk Officer, Washington, DC 20503. Additionally, comments may be submitted to OMB via facsimile to 202-395-7285. Comments may also be submitted to the Department of Justice (DOJ), Justice Management Division, Information Management and Security Staff, Attention: Department Clearance Officer, Suite 850, 1001 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20530. Additionally, comments may be submitted to DOJ via facsimile to 202-514-1534. Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following points:

(1) evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency/component, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) evaluate the accuracy of the agencies/component estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection: New survey to examine the relationship between juvenile delinquency and gang and nongang affiliation of Southeast Asian refugee youths.

(2) The title of the form/collection: Delinquency and Criminal Street Gang Affiliation Among Southeast Asian-American Youth Survey.

The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection. Form: None. Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Primary: Primary: Delinquent and non-delinquent youth involved in gang or non-gang law violating groups and a parent or guardian. Other: None. The information collected is used to document the proportion of total juvenile delinquency for which gang and non-gang involved law-violating youth are responsible and to document the contribution of gang membership versus that of other law-violating youth groups to serious, violent and chronic juvenile careers.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: There will be 800 respondents and it will take about one hour to respond to the questions for a total of 800 hours.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 800 annual burden hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: July 31, 1996.
