ACTION: Notice of Information Collection Under Review; Redress Payments for Japanese Americans: Guidelines for Individuals Who Involuntarily Relocated to Japan During the War, and Guidelines under Ishida v. United States.

Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval is being sought for the information collection listed below. This proposed information collection was previously published in the Federal Register and allowed 60 days for public comment.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments from the date listed at the top of this page in the Federal Register. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 Code of Federal Regulations, part 1320.10.

Written comments and/or suggestions regarding the item(s) contained in this notice, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, should be directed to the Office of Management and Budget, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention: Department of Justice Desk Officers, Washington, DC 20503. Additionally, comments may be submitted to OMB via facsimile to 202-395-7285. Additionally, comments may also be submitted to the Department of Justice (DOJ), Justice Management Division, Information Management and Security Staff, Attention: Department Clearance Officer, Suite 850, 1001 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20530. Additionally, comments may be submitted to DOJ via facsimile to 202-514-1534.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies should address one or more of the following points:

(1) evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency/component, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) evaluate the accuracy of the agencies/components estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection. Existing Collection in Use without a OMB Number.

(2) The title of the form/collection. Redress Payments for Japanese Americans: Guidelines for Individuals Who Involuntarily Relocated to Japan during the War and Guidelines under Ishida v. United States.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection. Form: None. Office of Redress Administration, Civil Rights Division, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Primary: Individuals or households. Other: None. This collection contains the forms which persons of Japanese ancestry will use to apply for redress compensation under the Civil Liberties Act of 1988.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond. 140 respondents: Declaration at 10 minutes per response; 2,000 respondents: Declaration at 10 minutes per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection. 356 annual burden hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: August 1, 1996.

Robert B. Briggs,

Department Clearance Officer, United States
Department of Justice.
