Office of Research on Women's Health; Notice of Meeting—"Beyond Hunt Valley: Research on Women's Health for the 21st Century"

Notice is hereby given that the Office of Research on Women's Health, Office of the Director, National Institutes of Health, will convene a meeting on September 25, 26, and 27, 1996, at the DoubleTree Hotel Philadelphia, Broad Street at Locust, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The purpose of the meeting is to update the current biomedical and behavioral research agenda for women's health, as presented in the Report of the National Institutes of Health:

Opportunities for Research on Women's Health, a publication based on a conference held in Hunt Valley, Maryland, September, 1991.

The first day, September 25, from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m., will be devoted to receiving public testimony from individuals representing organizations interested in biomedical and behavioral research on women's health issues. On September 26 and 27, concurrent working groups will discuss areas of science particularly relevant to women's health with attention to research design, health impact of collaborative and multidisciplinary research efforts, and issues of importance to young investigators. The meeting of September 26 will be from 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and that of September 27 from 9:30 a.m. to approximately 3:30 p.m. All sessions of the meeting are open to the public.

Experts in fields of basic and clinical science; practitioners interested in women's health; representatives of scientific, professional and women's health organizations; and women's
