effectiveness of family support programs. The information collected will provide descriptive information about family support programs, including detailed information about program operations and variation among programs, and will address the question of the effectiveness of such programs in achieving their goals. The data collected will complement a previous review of existing evaluations of family support programs, and will provide prospective information on eight programs, including information about the operation of such programs and outcomes for families and children who participate. Information will be collected beginning in Fall, 1996, through interviews with parents, children, and teachers of children who are participants in family support programs. Domains of interest include adult and child strengths, home environment, child development, children's school success, development of children's social responsibility, family resources, family social support networks, adoption of healthy lifestyles, community environment, community resources, and community networks.

Respondents: Individuals or households, not-for-profit institutions.

New and Pending Demonstration Project Proposals Submitted Pursuant to Section 1115(a) of the Social Security Act: July 1996

AGENCY: Administration for Children and Families, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This notice lists new proposals for welfare reform and combined welfare reform/Medicaid demonstration projects submitted to the Department of Health and Human Services for the month of July, 1996. It includes both those proposals being considered under the standard waiver process and those being considered under the 30 day process. Federal approval for the proposals has been requested pursuant to section 1115 of the Social Security Act. This notice also lists proposals that were previously submitted and are still pending a decision and projects that have been approved since July 1, 1995. The Health Care Financing Administration is publishing a separate notice for Medicaid only demonstration projects.

Comments: We will accept written comments on these proposals. We will, if feasible, acknowledge receipt of all comments, but we will not provide written responses to comments. We will, however, neither approve nor disapprove new proposals under the standard application process for at least 30 days after the date of this notice to allow time to receive and consider comments. Direct comments as indicated below.

ADDRESSES: For specific information or questions on the content of a project contact the State contact listed for that project.
