Federal Aviation Administration

[Docket No. 28661]

Procedures for Processing Petitions for Interim Compliance Waivers

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration, DOT.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: This document presents a review of the procedures and information necessary for an operator of a Stage 2 noise level airplane subject to the phaseout regulations, resulting from the Airport Noise and Capacity Act of 1990, to submit a request for a compliance waiver. As a result of its experience preceding the first interim Stage 2 phaseout compliance date, December 31, 1994, the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) reminds all affected operators of the procedures for applying for interim compliance waivers. This document also serves as a reminder to operators that as of March 14, 1995, new compliance arrangements that rely on sharing Stage 3 airplanes for noise compliance purposes by placing them on the operators specifications of more than one operator are prohibited, and that existing share arrangements may not be used for compliance with the December 31, 1996, requirements.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. William W. Albee, Policy and Regulatory Division (AEE-300), Office of Environment and Energy, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, DC 20591; telephone (202) 267-3553, facsimile (202) 267-5594.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Sections 91.865 and 91.867 of 14 CFR each require that as of December 31, 1996, an operator of Stage 2 airplanes either reduce the number of Stage 2 airplanes it operates by 50% from its base level, achieve a fleet mix of airplanes that is 65% Stage 3 airplanes, or in the case of a new entrant, achieve a fleet mix that is 50% Stage 3 airplanes. Section 91.871 allows operators to request waivers from interim compliance dates in limited circumstances. In order to facilitate compliance with the December 31, 1996, requirement, the FAA is summarizing the regulatory requirements for waiver requests from the Stage 3 transition regulations.

Filing Requests

As stated in § 91.871, applications for waivers must be filed at least 120 days prior to the compliance date from which the waiver is requested. This means that applications must be filed no later than Tuesday, September 3, 1996, to ensure that they will be considered before the December 31, 1996, compliance date.

Each petition for an interim compliance waiver will be reviewed to determine whether it meets the basic criteria listed 14 CFR 91.871. If the criteria are not met, the petitioner will receive a letter indicating that all of the required information has not been submitted. Petitioners will have an opportunity to submit missing information before any disposition is final.

Criteria (14 CFR 91.871)

All applications for a waiver must contain all of the following:

1. The operator's plan to achieve interim and final compliance;
2. An explanation of the operator's efforts to date to achieve compliance; and
3. Evidence or other information showing that a grant of the requested waiver is in the public interest.

In addition to the three criteria listed above, each petitioner must also explain why compliance with the December 31, 1996, requirement would be at least one of the following:

1. Financially onerous;
2. Physically impossible;
3. Technologically infeasible; or

4. Have an adverse effect either on competition or service to small communities.

Scope of Request

Each waiver will be considered only for the airplanes operated by the petitioner on the date the petition was submitted to the FAA. Operators are expected to have submitted viable compliance plans and abided by them. The FAA's analysis of any petition will take into account the total circumstances of the operator, including all actions taken up to the date of the petition.

Publication

Upon completion of the review and determination that the petition is complete in accordance with the criteria described above, a summary of the petition will be published in the Federal Register for public comment for a minimum of 14 days. A docket will be opened that contains the petition, any other pertinent information, and any comments received.

Response

After the close of the comment period, the Office of Environment and Energy (AEE) will analyze each request and draft a response that contains a narrative analysis of each required element. If the results of the analysis show that the petitioner has met the criteria, AEE will prepare documentation to grant the petition for waiver. If the analysis shows that the petitioner has failed to meet the criteria, AEE will prepare documentation to deny the petition. Part of a request may also be granted at the agency's discretion, depending on the circumstances. A copy of the approval or denial document will be placed in the docket, and it will be made available for public inspection.

Length of Waiver

Any waiver granted will be for the shortest possible time as required by the circumstances presented by the petitioner and the findings of the FAA. If the petitioner cannot achieve compliance within the time frame provided in a waiver, the petitioner must submit a new petition that will be evaluated under the same criteria as the original petition. New petitions that fail to provide more information than the original will be denied.

Summary of 1994 Interim Waiver Denials

Ten operators petitioned the FAA for interim compliance waivers in 1994; seven petitions were denied and three were withdrawn. For operators that may
