Notice of Change in Status of Extended Benefit (EB) Periods for the State of Alaska.

This notice announces changes in benefit period eligibility under the EB Program for the State of Alaska.

SUMMARY: The following changes have occurred since the publication of the last notice regarding States' EB status:

- July 6, 1996—Alaska's 13-week insured unemployment rate for the week ending June 15, 1996 fell below 6.0 percent and was less than 120 percent of the average for the corresponding period for the prior two years, causing Alaska to trigger "off" EB effective July 6, 1996.

Information for Claimants

The duration of benefits payable in the EB Program, and the terms and conditions on which they are payable, are governed by the Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensation Act of 1970, as amended, and the operating instructions issued to the States by the U.S. Department of Labor. In the case of a State beginning an EB period, the State employment security
