Quota Categories From Hong Kong Being Monitored for Transshipment Concerns

AGENCY: U.S. Customs Service, Department of the Treasury.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: This document notifies the public that for the period commencing on September 1, 1996, and through September 30, 1996, certain textile quota categories from Hong Kong will be placed on a "watch list" and monitored by Customs because of transshipment concerns. If the monitoring indicates the probability of transshipment during that 30-day monitoring period, Customs will place on a "watch list" and monitored by Customs to determine if the monitoring indicates the probability of transshipment during that 30-day monitoring period, Customs will place on a "watch list" and monitored by Customs to determine if the monitoring indicates the probability of transshipment during that 30-day monitoring period, Customs will place on a "watch list" and monitored by Customs to determine if the monitoring indicates the probability of transshipment during that 30-day monitoring period, Customs will place the probability of transshipment, Customs will determine that the objects to be included in the exhibit, "Eugene Cuvelier, Photographer in the Circle of Corot" (See list 1), imported from abroad for the temporary exhibition without profit within the United States, are of cultural significance. These objects are imported pursuant to a loan agreement with the foreign lenders. I also determine that the exhibition or display of the listed exhibit objects at The Metropolitan Museum of Art from on or about October 7, 1996, through January 3, 1997, is in the national interest. Public Notice of this determination is ordered to be published in the Federal Register.

Dated: August 26, 1996.
