

UNIDROIT project involves rules for international secured interests for mobile equipment.

Requesters may also be interested in the recently completed UNCITRAL rules on electronic commerce, which cover the legal effect and validity of computer messages in commercial transactions, functional equivalents of signatures, writings, etc., attribution of messages, time and place where communications are deemed to have taken place, and other matters.

The meeting of the Advisory Committee Study Group is open to the public up to the capacity of the meeting room. Members of the public who cannot attend are welcome to comment on the referenced documents, including any recommendations for possible U.S. positions on these matters. The meeting will take place at the Southern Methodist University School of Law, 3315 Daniels Avenue, Dallas, Texas in the Thomas Seminar Room at Storey Hall. Persons who expect to attend should advise either the Office of the Legal Adviser (L/PIL), Suite 357 South Building, 2430 E Street, NW., Washington, DC 20037-2800, fax (202) 776-8482 or Professor Peter Winship at SMU at (214) 768-2575 or by fax (214) 768-4330. Documents can be requested from the Office of the Legal Adviser; for further information please contact Harold S. Burman of that office or Professor Winship.

Harold S. Burman,

Advisory Committee, Executive Director.
