The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Milton S. Eisenhower Foundation entered into a cooperative agreement to provide technical assistance to housing authorities to implement and evaluate law enforcement mini-stations and inner-city youth safe havens in the following public housing authorities: District of Columbia, Columbia, SC, Little Rock, AK, Memphis, TN, San Juan, Puerto Rico, Baltimore, MD and Newark, NJ. In addition, the Foundation and HUD will identify best practices among drug-prevention efforts which operate through community-based facilities, as methods public housing authorities can use in support of residents, who must transition from welfare to work.

The KOBAN police and community partnership program is a unique innovative program to improve relationships between local law enforcement agencies and the inner-city neighborhoods they patrol, to reduce crime and drug abuse in the neighborhoods and prevent inner-city youth from engaging in high-risk behavior. The program builds on policing strategies that have operated successfully in Japan and proven successful in other variations in American cities.
