

condition as well as records reflecting certain employee and principal information. It is estimated that approximately 8,500 respondents will comply with this rule for a total annual burden of 2,542,163 hours.

Rule 17a-4 requires exchange members, brokers and dealers to preserve for prescribed periods of time certain records required to be made by Rule 17a-3. In addition, Rule 17a-4 requires the preservation of records required to be made by other Commission rules and other kinds of records which firms make or receive in the ordinary course of business. These include, but are not limited to, bank statements, cancelled checks, bills receivable and payable, originals of communications, and descriptions of various transactions. It is estimated that approximately 8,500 respondents will comply with this rule for a total annual burden of 2,158,830 hours.

General comments regarding the estimated burden hours should be directed to the Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission at the address below. Any comments concerning the accuracy of the estimated average burden hours for compliance with Commission rules and forms should be directed to Michael E. Bartell, Associate Executive Director, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549, and Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 3208, New Executive Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget a request for approval of revisions to the following forms:

Form S-1 is used by issuers that are not eligible to use any of the specialized forms to register securities pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"). It is estimated that 1,084 forms would be filed annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 1,373,428 hours.

Form S-2 is used by issuers that have been reporting companies for three years and that have filed reports under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") for the last 12 months. It is estimated that 101 forms would be filed annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 47,470 hours.

Form S-3 is used by issuers that have reported under the Exchange Act for 12 months, making primary offerings of non-investment grade securities, and generally have a public float of $75 million. It is estimated that 2,162 forms would be filed annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 860,476 hours.

Form F-1 is used by foreign private issuers registering securities under the Securities Act that are not eligible to use other forms. It is estimated that 170 forms would be filed annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 317,560 hours.

Form F-2 is used by foreign private issuers that have filed Exchange Act reports for 36 months or, in some instances, that have a public float of at least $75 million. It is estimated that approximately 5 respondents would file annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 2,795 hours.

Form F-3 is used by foreign private issuers that have been Exchange Act reporting companies for 12 months (and have filed at least one annual report on the appropriate form), and if making primary offerings of non-investment grade securities, generally have a public float of at least $75 million. It is estimated that 150 forms would be filed annually, resulting in an estimated annual total burden of 24,900 hours.
