

El Paso states that the tendered tariff sheets will, upon their acceptance, remove references to its Washington Ranch Surcharges and Monthly Billed Amounts and the related tariff sheets since the amortization period for the Washington Ranch costs ends on December 31, 1996. Additionally, El Paso states that it has included schedules showing the interest amounts to be credited to shippers due to an overcollection of interest.

El Paso requested that the Commission grant waiver of Section 31.4(b)(iv) of the General Terms and Conditions contained in its Volume No. 1-A Tariff so that El Paso may apply the interest credit referenced herein to its December, 1996 invoices to be mailed in January, 1997.

El Paso states that copies of the filing were served upon all of El Paso's interstate pipeline system transportation customers and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E. Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
