SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Scope and Purpose of the EJP2 Grant Program

The purpose of the FY 1997 EJP2 grant program is to support the use of pollution prevention approaches to address the environmental problems of minority communities and/or low-income communities. This grant program is designed to fund projects which have a direct impact on affected communities. Funds awarded must be used to support pollution prevention programs in minority and/or low-income communities. The Agency strongly encourages cooperative efforts between communities, business, industry, and government to address common pollution prevention goals. Projects funded under this grant may involve public education, training, demonstration projects, public-private partnerships, or approaches to develop, evaluate, and demonstrate non-regulatory strategies and technologies.

II. Definition of Environmental Justice and Pollution Prevention

Environmental justice is defined by EPA as the fair treatment of people of all races, cultures, and incomes with respect to the development, implementation, and enforcement of environmental laws, regulations, programs, and policies. Fair treatment means that no racial, ethnic, or social economic group should bear a disproportionate share of the negative environmental consequences resulting from the operation of industrial, municipal, and commercial enterprises, and from the execution of federal, state, local, and tribal programs and policies.

The Pollution Prevention Act of 1990 establishes a hierarchy of environmental preferences. These practices include, in order of preference:

- Pollution prevention
- Recycling
- Treatment

- Disposal
- Pollution prevention means source reduction. That is, any practice that reduces or eliminates any pollutant at the source of generation prior to recycling, treatment, or disposal. Pollution prevention also includes practices that reduce or eliminate the creation of pollutants through:
- Increased efficiency in the use of raw materials, energy, water, or other resources; and
  - Protection of natural resources by conservation.
- This grant program is focused on using the top of the hierarchy--pollution prevention--to bring about better environmental protection.

III. Eligibility

Any affected, non-profit community organizations with section 501(c)(3) or section 501(c)(4)<sup>1</sup> IRS tax status, or state and federally recognized tribal organizations may submit an application upon the publication of this solicitation. "Non-profit organization" is defined as any corporation, trust, association, cooperative, or other organizations that is:

- (1) Operated primarily for scientific, educational, service, charitable, or similar purposes in the public interest.
  - (2) Not organized primarily for profit.
  - (3) Uses its net proceeds to maintain, improve, and/or expand its operations.
- While state and local governments and academic institutions are also eligible to receive grants, preference will be given to private, non-profit, community-based/grassroots organizations, and state and federally recognized tribal organizations. Organizations must be incorporated by April 15, 1997, in order to be eligible to receive funds. Private businesses, federal agencies, and individuals are ineligible for this grant. Organizations excluded from applying directly, as well as those inexperienced in grant-writing, are encouraged to develop partnerships and prepare joint proposals with national, regional, or local organizations.

No applicant can receive two grants for the same project at one time. EPA will consider only one proposal for a given project. Applicants may submit more than one application as long as the applications are for separate and distinct projects.

Organizations seeking funds from the EJP2 grant program can request up to <sup>1</sup> As a result of the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, EPA (and other federal agencies) may not award grants to non-profit, section 501(c)(4) organizations that engage in lobbying activities. This restriction applies to any lobbying activities of a section 501(c)(4) organization without distinguishing between lobbying funded by federal money and lobbying funded by other sources.

$100,000 for local projects, and up to $250,000 for projects that involve multiple communities located in more than one EPA Region, or projects that are national in scope. In accordance with 40 CFR parts 30 and 23, EPA no longer requires cost sharing or matching under this grant program as it applies to institutions of higher education, hospitals, and other non-profit organizations, unless otherwise required by statute, regulation, Executive Order, or official Agency policy. Therefore, any matching requirements may need to be determined on a case-by-case basis depending upon the substantive focus of the grant proposal. Applicants that are governmental entities, such as state and local governments, are subject to a twenty-five (25) percent matching or cost-sharing requirement. Matching or cost-sharing requirement may be satisfied through either cash or in-kind contributions.
