Internal Revenue Service

[Project No. TIRNO-97-R-00018]

Proposed Establishment of a Federally Funded Research and Development Center

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of intent.

SUMMARY: The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) intends to sponsor a Federally Funded Research and Development Center (FFRDC) to provide system engineering and technical assistance along with strategic advice and guidance. Also required will be technical management capabilities to facilitate the operation and modernization of Tax Systems. The FFRDC will be established under the authority of 48 CFR Subpart 35.017 and Office of Federal Procurement Policy Letter 84-1. The FFRDC shall provide technical advice and assistance to the IRS and/or its contractors in the areas of program and project management. This will consist of expert advice/guidance focused on increasing the effectiveness and efficiency of strategic information management and technical activities. The FFRDC will be available for IRS's Chief Information Officer (CIO) or the CIO's designees or Department of the Treasury executive support. Examples of this support may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Information Systems (IS) input to business case development
- Business Process Analysis
- IS management and oversight of IRS contractors
- Evaluation of IRS contractors' performance and development of performance measures

- Development of recommendations regarding a prime integration contractor
- Evaluation of IRS effectiveness
- Ad hoc technical advice
- Acquisition Support as necessary.

This procurement will not involve a request for proposals. However, expressions of interest and qualification or capability statements should be submitted by interested entities who are capable of fulfilling this requirement. The qualification or capability statements received will be used to select potentially qualified entities, which may at a later date be requested to submit additional information and/or provide an oral presentation as part of a final selection. This is the second of three announcements issued under the authority of 48 CFR 5.205 (b).

DATES: Please submit comments on this proposed action no later than February 21, 1997. The IRS will appreciate receiving qualification or capability statements at your earliest convenience, however, this information must be received within 15 days after the third (3rd) publication of this announcement to be considered.
