

publishing interest for Mr. Curry as sole representative of Tajai.

One final point raised by Mr. Curry and Ms. Evelyn concerns the use of SoundScan as the definitive source of record sales data. The Report, however, clearly indicates that the Panel did consider evidence submitted by Mr. Curry regarding sales through record companies, and that after due consideration, the Panel rejected the evidence because he failed to provide the universe of record sales for these companies during the relevant time. CARP Report, para. 40. The Panel's decision to reject the record sales data submitted by Mr. Curry and rely upon the SoundScan data was not arbitrary.

Similarly, Ms. Evelyn's contention that the Settling Parties failed to provide additional data concerning additional DART eligible songs is without merit. The Panel carefully analyzed her direct case and found no credible evidence of sales or performances in the U.S. during the relevant period, CARP Report, paras. 41-48; the Panel did credit her with sales of musical works introduced by the Settling Parties. CARP Report, para. 35. Furthermore, the Register notes that the evidence presented by the Settling Parties, and adopted by the Panel, for record sales of Ms. Evelyn and Mr. Curry credit them both with greater sales than the evidence they presented in their written direct cases, thereby increasing the size of their respective awards. CARP Report, para. 62 and 64.

As discussed earlier in this Order, the Librarian's scope of review is very narrow. The limited scope certainly does not extend to reconsideration of the relative weight to be accorded particular evidence, and the Librarian cannot second guess a CARP's balance and consideration of the evidence, unless it runs counter to the evidence presented to it. Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association v. State Farm Mutual Auto Insurance Co., 463 U.S. 29, 43 (1983).

Conclusion

For the above stated reasons, the Register recommends that the following should be the percentages for the distribution of the royalties in the 1992, 1993, and 1994 Musical Works Funds:

	Writers	Publishers	Writers	Publishers	Writers	Publishers
