Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of January, February, 1997.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number of proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or sub-division have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-33, 924; Cooper Firearms, Inc., Stevensville, MT

TA-W-33, 032; All American Apparel, Inc., Salem, MO

TA-W-33, 024; Eagle Nest, Inc., Johnstown, PA

TA-W-33, 092; Spalding Knitting Mills, Griffin, GA

TA-W-32, 974; Sprague, North Adams, Inc., North Adams, MA

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-33, 044; Butler Sales Agency, Inc., Eau Claire, WI

TA-W-32, 858; Volkswagen of America, Distribution & Auto Service Center, Port of Washington, DE

The workers firm does not produce an article as required for certification under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-33, 133; Watauga Industries, Elizabethton, TN

The investigation revealed that criteria (1) and criteria (3) have not been met. A significant number or proportion of the workers did not become totally or partially separated as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.

TA-W-32, 883; American Banknote Co., Bedford Park, IL

TA-W-32, 847; U.S. Natural Resources, Irvington Moore Div., Portland, OR

TA-W-32, 893; Armour Swift-Eckrich Kalamazoo Plant, Kalamazoo, MI

TA-W-32, 907; Bartell Machinery System Corp., Rome, NY

TA-W-33, 007; Barth & Dreyfus of California, Albemarle, NC

Increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-32,905; W.C. Curdy Co., Oxford, MI

The subject firm transferred a majority of its production from Oxford, MI to another company with manufacturing at domestic locations in the relevant period.

TA-W-32,910; Conoco, Inc., Downstream Operations, Headquartered in Houston, TX & Operating at Locations in Various States: A; GA, B; KS, C; LA, D; OK, E; MN, F; MS, G; MT, H; NC, I; NE, J; NM, K; SC, L; TN, M; TX, N; VA, O; WY

U.S. imports of refined petroleum products and motor gasoline were very low relative to domestic production in Oct-Sept 1995-1996 time period.

Affirmative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

The following certifications have been issued; the date following the company name & location for each determination references the impact date for all workers for such determination.

 TA-W-32,914; Chicago Pneumatic Tool Co., Utica, NY: October 16, 1995.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a) Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of January and February, 1997.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) That sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) That imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) That there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.

NAFTA-TAA-01400; Kranco Browning, Inc., Orley Meyer Div., (Formerly a Div. of The Manitowoc Co., Inc.), Big Bend, WI

[TA-W-32,962 and NAFTA-01337]

Rayonier, Incorporated, Port Angeles Mill, Port Angeles, WA; Notice of Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of January 20, 1997, a company official requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notices of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistant (TA-W-32,962) and NAFTA-Transitional Adjustment Assistance (NAFTA-01337) for workers of the subject firm. The denial notice for TA-W-32,608 was signed on December 27, 1996, and published in the Federal Register on February 3, 1997 (52 FR 5049). The denial notice for NAFTA-01337 was signed on December 18, 1996, and published in the Federal Register on December 31, 1996 (61 FR 69110).

The petitioner presents evidence that the Department's investigation was incomplete.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 4th day of February 1997.

Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company, Industrial Tool Division, Utica, NY; Notice of Termination of Certification

This notice terminates the Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply For Worker Adjustment Assistance issued by the Department on May 31, 1996, applicable to workers of Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company, Industrial Tool Division located in Utica, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 20, 1996 (61 FR 31553).

The Department, on its own motion, reviewed the worker certification. Findings show that the workers produced handheld pneumatically powered construction and industrial tools. Workers producing hammers were certified eligible to apply for adjustment assistance, while workers producing industrial tools were denied.

On January 30, 1997, the Department issued a certification of eligibility applicable to all workers of Chicago Pneumatic Tool Company in Utica, New York, TA-W-32,914. Workers separated from employment with the subject firm on or after October 16, 1995 until January 30, 1999, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance program benefits.

Based on this new information, the Department is terminating the
