

respond to a Commission request for information about a U.S. customer or its affiliate about whom the Commission has financial solvency concerns.⁶⁶ The exemption also is contingent upon the execution of a satisfactory unilateral understanding between the Commission and the IML, Luxembourg's banking and securities regulatory authority, to facilitate the provision of information by Cedel to the Commission.⁶⁷ In addition to the above information, the Commission will monitor Cedel through its review of information provided to the IML by Cedel⁶⁸ and its external auditors.⁶⁹

In addition to the foregoing arrangements for access to information, Cedel will be required to file with the Commission amendments to its application for exemption on Form CA-1 prior to the implementation of any change in Cedel's stated policies, practices, or procedures that makes the information contained in the original Form CA-1 incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect.⁷⁰ This method of notifying the Commission of proposed changes at Cedel will assist the Commission on its overall review and understanding of Cedel and its operations. In addition, Cedel will be required to notify the Commission of changes to the Customer Handbook and Customer Agreement and will provide the Commission with copies of the most current Customer Agreement and Customer Handbook and any amendments or updates thereto. Cedel also will provide the Commission with copies of Cedel's annual report of its external auditor, and any other document relating to an audit, survey, or consultant's review concerning Cedel's financial position, operations, or internal control as the Commission may reasonably request.

4. Modification of Exemption

The Commission may modify by order the terms, scope, or conditions of Cedel's exemption from registration as a clearing agency if the Commission determines that such modification is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act.⁷¹ Furthermore, the Commission may limit, suspend, or revoke this exemption if the Commission finds that Cedel has violated or is unable to comply with any of the provisions set forth in this Order if such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act for the protection of investors and the public interest.

IV. Conclusion

The Commission finds that Cedel's application for exemption from registration as a clearing agency meets the standards and requirements deemed appropriate for such an exemption including those standards set forth under Section 17A of the Exchange Act.

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(a)(1) of the Exchange Act, that the application for exemption from registration as a clearing agency filed by Cedel Bank, société anonyme (File No. 600-29) be, and hereby is, approved subject to the conditions contained in this Order.

By the Commission.
Margaret H. McFarland,
Deputy Secretary.
