Proposed Projects

1. NIOSH Training Grants, 42 CFR Part 86, Application And Regulations—(0920-0261)—Extension—Public Law 91-596 authorizes CDC/NIOSH to support "education programs that provide an adequate supply of qualified personnel * * * by grants or contracts "to assure a safe and healthful work environment. NIOSH awards grants for both short-term and long-term training to academic institutions and other organizations interested in providing training for professionals. Grants are also provided to Educational Resource Centers (ERCs) which provide multidisciplinary graduate training for industrial hygienists, occupational physicians, occupational health nurses, safety professionals and other occupational health-related disciplines in addition to continuing education for practicing professionals and outreach in the Region. 42 CFR Part 86, "Grants for Education Programs in Occupational Safety and Health, Subpart B—Occupational Safety and Health Training, provides guidelines for implementing Public Law 91-596. The training grant application form is used by the National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health to collect information from potential applicants. The information is used to determine the eligibility of applicants for review, to calculate the amount of each award and to judge the merit of each application. CDC Form 2.145A is used for new and competing continuation grants; CDC Form 2.145B is used for non-competing awards. If this information is not collected, grants cannot be reviewed and awarded. The total cost to respondents for the three year period is $352,500.

Respondents	Number of respondents	Number of responses/respondent	Avg. burden/response (in hrs.)	Total burden (in hrs.)
Universities	57	1	82.46	4,700
Total	4,700

2. Foreign Quarantine Regulations—(0920-0134)—Extension—Section 361 of the Public Health Service (PHS) Act (42 USC 264) authorizes the Secretary of Health and Human Services to make and enforce regulations necessary to prevent the introduction, transmission, or spread of communicable diseases from foreign countries into the United States. Legislation and the existing regulations governing quarantine activities (42 CFR Part 71) authorize quarantine officers and other personnel to inspect and undertake necessary control measures with respect to conveyances, persons, and shipments of animals and etiologic agents in order to protect the public health. Currently, with the exception of rodent inspections and the cruise ship sanitation program inspections are performed only on those vessels and aircraft which report illness prior to arrival or when illness is discovered upon arrival. Other inspection agencies assist quarantine officers in public health screening of persons, pets, and other importations of public health importance and make referrals to PHS when indicated. These practices and procedures assure protection against the introduction and spread of communicable diseases into the United States with a minimum of recordkeeping and reporting as well as a minimum of interference with trade and travel.

Respondents would include airplane pilots, ships' captains, importers, and travelers. The nature of the quarantine would dictate which forms are completed by whom. Thus, the "respondents" portion of the information below is replaced by the requisite form title. The estimated cost to the public is $22,200.

Respondents	Number of respondents	Number of responses/respondent	Avg. burden/response (in hrs.)	Total burden (in hrs.)

Proposed Project

1. Emergency Epidemic Investigations (0920-0008)—Reinstatement—During most emergency situations, CDC specialists (epidemiologist, biostatisticians, laboratory specialists, etc.) work under the aegis of a State or local health department. Usually such investigations are completed by the State or local government, with technical assistance from CDC. Occasionally, an investigation must be continued or is multistate or global. In these cases, the CDC collects or sponsors the collection of information from the public.

This request, therefore, is for the reinstatement of OMB approval to collect data in such emergency situations. The total burden hours are 3,000.

Respondents	Number of respondents	Number of responses/respondent	Avg. burden/response (in hrs.)
