

Northeast Multispecies Fishery (FMP). Action is requested by March 17, 1997. Specifically, Framework 20 would implement a gillnet vessel effort-reduction program (by including a cap on the number of nets and revising days-at-sea monitoring), and implement programs to re-direct effort off of the overexploited cod stock in the Gulf of Maine (GOM) area. These measures need to be in effect before May 1, 1997 (the start of the 1997/1998 fishing year) in order to achieve the objectives of the FMP in that fishing year. Failure to have them in effect at the start of the 1997/1998 fishing year would cause administrative problems and prove unnecessarily confusing to the industry. Implementation also cannot be delayed because of the need to make days-at-sea allocations, implement effort-reduction programs in the gillnet fishery, re-direct focus off of the overexploited cod stock in the GOM area, and reduce discards at sea to the maximum extent practicable (as required by the Magnuson-Stevens Fishery Conservation and Management Act). These measures, combined with the measures currently in place, are critical to the overall success of the FMP to rebuild the principal multispecies stocks and mitigate some of its impacts. It is anticipated that these measures will curb a recent pattern of effort displacement into the GOM inshore area that resulted from initial phases of effort-reduction programs under Amendments 5, 6, and 7 to the FMP. Emergency approval of this request is essential to the mission of the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS).

As emergency approvals under the PRA are for a very limited duration, this notice also requests public comments on a follow-up submission that will be made to OMB under standard review procedures.

A number of specific information requirements are contained in Framework 20. These measures require that multispecies gillnet vessels select to fish under a "Day gillnet" and "Trip gillnet" category designation; adds effort reduction requirements for Day gillnet vessels—a requirement to take 120 days out of the gillnet fishery, and the requirement to request tags for, and tag, gillnets; adds a call in requirement for vessels exceeding the cod trip limit when fishing north of 42°00' N. latitude; and adds a cod trip limit exemption program for the cod fishery south of 42°00' N. latitude.

II. Method of Collection

Declarations and requests for net tags are made by form. Cod hail reports and exemption requests are made by phone.
