SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This Notice informs the public that the Department of Housing and Urban Development has submitted to OMB, for emergency processing, an information collection package to the Community Renaissance Fellows Program (CRFP).

The CRFP, in concert with foundations, will promote graduate programs or fellowships for comprehensive community building approaches. To meet this pressing need and to shape a new generation of visionary, highly competent community building urban professionals, HUD will provide approximately $3.45 million for this program—$3.0 millions for the Fellows' stipends and $450,000 for their education.

HUD has committed to funding approximately 20 CRF to work with selected public housing developments and their residents to turn these developments into communities of opportunity. HUD is now looking for potential partners with a stake in urban neighborhoods to join in this innovative program and provide funding for an additional 20 Fellows to work with community-based organizations on comprehensive neighborhood revitalization projects.
