First Revised Sheet No. 114

Third Revised Sheet No. 214

First Revised Sheet No. 290

First Revised Sheet Nos. 349 and 350

Original Revised Sheet No. 350A

El Paso states that the above tariff sheets are being filed in order to implement a limited negotiated rate option that is consistent with the Commission's policy and the Offer of Settlement and Request for Approval of Stipulation and Agreement filed with the Commission on March 15, 1996 at Docket Nos. RP95-363-000, et al.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

[Docket No. ER97-1177-000]

Global Energy Services, LLC; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 13, 1997.

Global Energy Service, LLC (Global Energy) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which Global Energy will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. Global Energy also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Global Energy requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Global.

On March 12, 1997, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Global Energy should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, Global Energy is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Global Energy's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 11, 1997.

Copies of the full text of the order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426.

BILLING CODE 6717-01-M

[Docket No. RP97-285-000]

NorAm Gas Transmission Company; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

March 13, 1997.

Take notice that on March 10, 1997, NorAm Gas Transmission Company (NGT) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Fourth Revised Volume No. 1, the following revised tariff sheets, to be effective April 1, 1997:

Third Revised Sheet No. 215

Fourth Revised Sheet No. 315

NGT states that the filing proposes a May 1 effective date for any credits calculated under its comprehensive annual crediting filings made pursuant to Sections 5.7(c)(ii)(2)B. and 23.7 of the General Terms and Conditions of NGT's FERC Gas Tariff. The current effective date is April 1 of each year. NGT states that under the current schedule it does not have sufficient time to close its books, compile the required twelve months of data (through January 31), and prepare and make timely filings to implement an April 1 effective date.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Rules 214 and 211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214, 385.211). All such motions or protests should be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
