

(5) Such other conduct which may threaten the public health and safety.

These factors are to be considered in the disjunctive; the Deputy Administrator may rely on any one or a combination of factors and may give each factor the weight he deems appropriate in determining whether a registration should be revoked or an application for registration be denied. See Henry J. Schwarz, Jr., M.D., Docket No. 88-42, 54 FR 16,422 (1989).

Regarding factor one, the recommendation of the appropriate state licensing board, the Acting Deputy Administrator finds that while serious action was taken against Dr. Turley's Tennessee medical license in the past, this license is currently unrestricted. The Acting Deputy Administrator also finds however, that an unrestricted medical license is not dispositive of whether an applicant's registration with DEA is in the public interest.

As to Dr. Turley's experience in dispensing controlled substances, it is undisputed that Dr. Turley seriously abused his privileges as a DEA registrant. He dispensed controlled substances on numerous occasions for no legitimate medical purpose and in exchange for sexual favors and merchandise.

Regarding factors three and four, the record is clear that Dr. Turley was convicted of one count of unlawful distribution of controlled substances in violation of 21 U.S.C. 841(a)(1). This conviction was the result of the exchange of Ultragesic capsules for the two machine guns with silencers. However, it is evident that Dr. Turley failed to comply with 21 U.S.C. 841(a)(1) on numerous other occasions. He dispensed Dilaudid, an extremely addictive and dangerous substance, to at least three individuals for no legitimate medical purpose in exchange for sexual favors. In addition, he dispensed a variety of controlled substances to an individual for no legitimate medical purpose in exchange for merchandise.

The Acting Deputy Administrator concludes that Dr. Turley's past behavior as a DEA registrant was reprehensible. There is no indication that he can now be trusted to responsibly handle controlled substances, and therefore Dr. Turley's registration with DEA would be inconsistent with the public interest.

Accordingly, the Acting Deputy Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration, pursuant to the authority vested in him by 21 U.S.C. 823, and 28 C.F.R. 0.100(b) and 0.104, hereby orders that the application submitted by John C. Turley, III, M.D. for a DEA Certificate of Registration be, and it hereby is, denied. This order is effective April 28, 1997.

Dated: March 14, 1997.

James S. Milford,

Acting Deputy Administrator.
