File No. 270-95, OMB Control No.
3235-0084

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.), the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") has submitted to the Office of Management and Budget requests for approval of extension on previously approved collections of information:

Rule 15g-3 requires that brokers and dealers disclose to customers current quotation prices or similar market information in connection with transactions in certain low-priced, over-the-counter securities. It is estimated that approximately 270 respondents incur an average burden of 100 hours annually to comply with the rule.

Rule 15g-4 requires brokers and dealers effecting transactions in penny stocks for or with customers to disclose the amount of compensation received by the broker-dealer in connection with the transaction. It is estimated that approximately 270 respondents incur an average of 100 hours annually to comply with the rule.

Rule 15g-5 requires brokers and dealers to disclose to customers the amount of compensation to be received by their sales agents in connection with penny stock transactions. It is estimated that approximately 270 respondents incur an average burden of 100 hours annually to comply with the rule.

Rule 15g-6 requires brokers and dealers that sell penny stocks to their customers to provide monthly account statements containing information with regard to the penny stocks held in customer accounts. It is estimated that approximately 270 respondents incur an average burden of 90 hours annually to comply with the rule.

Rule 15g-7(a) would require brokers and dealers that effect transactions in penny stocks and are the only market makers with respect to such securities to disclose this fact in connection with such transactions. It is estimated that approximately 270 respondents would incur an average burden of 50 hours annually to comply with the rule.

Rule 17Ac2-1 and Form TA-1 is used by transfer agents to register with the Commission, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, or the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and to amend their registration.

It is estimated that approximately 359 respondents will incur an average burden of 538.5 hours annually to comply with the rule and form.

General comments regarding the estimated burden hours should be directed to the Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission at the address below. Any comments concerning the accuracy of the estimated average burden hours for compliance with Commission rules and forms should be directed to Michael E. Bartell, Associate Executive Director, Office of Information Technology, Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, NW., Washington, DC 20549 and Desk Officer for the Securities and Exchange Commission, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Room 3208, New Executive Office Building, Washington, DC 20503.

Dated: March 24, 1997.

Margaret H. McFarland,

Deputy Secretary.

BILLING CODE 8010-01-M

Issuer Delisting; Notice of Application to Withdraw From Listing and Registration; (ICG Communications, Inc., Common Stock, $.01 Par Value) File No. 1-11965

March 26, 1997.

ICG Communications, Inc. ("Company") has filed an application with the Securities and Exchange

Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act") and rule 12d2-2(d) promulgated thereunder, to withdraw the above specified security ("Security") from listing and registration on the American Stock Exchange, Inc. ("Amex").

The reasons alleged in the application for withdrawing the Security from listing and registration include the following:

According to the Company, the Board of Directors (the "Board") unanimously approved a resolution on February 11, 1997, to withdraw the Security from listing on the Amex and, instead, to list such Security on the Nasdaq National Market ("Nasdaq"). The decision of the Board was based upon the belief that listing the Security on Nasdaq will be more beneficial to its stockholders than the present listing on Amex because the Company has increasingly become aware of a reluctance by a seemingly growing number of trading firms to trade or market securities listed on Amex. The Company believes this reluctance has been a factor contributing to the very thin trading volume in the Company's stock. Furthermore, the Company also believes such reluctance to trade has, in turn, contributed to an unwillingness to do research on the Company. As a combined result, investors and prospective investors have not been as well served as the Company believes they are more likely to be on Nasdaq.

Any interested person may, on or before April 16, 1997, submit by letter to the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549, facts bearing upon whether the application has been made in accordance with the rules of the exchanges and what terms, if any, should be imposed by the Commission for the protection of investors. The Commission, based on the information submitted to it, will issue an order granting the application after the date mentioned above, unless the Commission determines to order a hearing on the matter.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Jonathan G. Katz,

Secretary.
