

agencies wishing to offer services for individual adoptions covered by the Convention to meet national accreditation requirements and individual providers of adoption services to be approved.

Those attending the meeting will examine and discuss the concept paper describing the basic approach and provisions of eventual U.S. federal implementing legislation that is currently in preparation by various federal government departments, including the Departments of State, Justice, Health and Human Services, and the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. Draft legislation will be developed after the meeting taking into consideration the comments and proposals made at the meeting and will be submitted to the Office of Management and Budget for Administration clearance. The hope is that the draft bill will be ready for introduction in both Houses of Congress by Summer 1997 as an Administration bill. The Hague Convention is to be submitted to the President at about the same time for transmission to the Senate for advice and consent to U.S. ratification.

Persons and organizations interested in how the Convention is to be implemented in the United States, whether they are able to attend the meeting or not, are welcome in writing or by fax to request documents from, and to submit written comments or proposals to, the office indicated below. The text of the Hague Convention may be found at 31 International Legal Materials 292 (1993); the Appendix at p. 76 of P.H. Pfund, "Intercountry Adoption: The 1993 Hague Convention: Its Purpose, Implementation, and Promise", 28 Family Law Quarterly (1994); I/II Uniform Law Review 237 (1993); and 40 Netherlands International Law Review 292 (1993).

Members of the general public may attend up to the capacity of the meeting room and participate in the discussion subject to the Chair. The meeting is scheduled in the Dean Acheson Auditorium of the Department of State; entry should be only via the 23rd Street entrance between "C" and "D" Streets, N.W. As access to the building is controlled and in order to expedite entry, the office indicated below should be notified by mail or fax no later than c.o.b. Friday, April 11 of the name, address, firm or affiliation if any, social security number and date of birth of all persons wishing to attend. Between 9:00 and 10:00 a.m. someone will be at the 23rd Street entrance to the State Department to facilitate admission to the building.

For copies of the concept paper, and the text of the Convention if necessary, please contact the Office of the Assistant Legal Adviser for Private International Law (L/PIL), attention Ms. Rosie Gonzales, by mail at 2430 E Street, South Building—Suite 357, Washington, DC 20037-2800 or by fax at (202) 776-8482.
