

Return United States

The goals for the missions are:

- Reaffirm President Clinton's commitment to hemispheric free trade, energize the U.S. private sector in its support for USG free trade initiatives and raise awareness of how the U.S. can benefit from further liberalization and commercial integration. In this context, the mission will highlight the upcoming Summit of the Americas that will occur in Santiago, Chile in March, 1998.

- Seek resolution of outstanding bilateral commercial issues and advocate U.S. interests regarding specific projects.

- Increase sales of U.S. products and services to Brazil, Argentina and Chile, particularly to the infrastructure sectors of these countries.

- Highlight the opening of the Brazilian, Argentine and Chilean markets.

- Increase joint ventures and investments by U.S. companies in Brazil, Argentina and Chile, especially those likely to result in U.S. exports.

A full description of the missions is set forth in the Mission Statement, which is available from Cheryl Bruner, Project Office and Director of the Office of Business Liaison, at the above address.

Trade Mission Participation Criteria

The recruitment and selection of private sector participants in the missions will be conducted according to the Statement of Policy Governing Department of Commerce Overseas Trade Missions announced by Secretary Daley on March 3, 1997 and reflected herein. For the Brazil and Argentina/Chile business development missions, individuals must be a level of executive seniority appropriate to the goals of the mission. Company participation will be determined on the basis of:

- Consistency of the company's goals with the scope and desired outcome of the missions as described herein;

- Relevance of a company's business line to the plan for the missions;

- Past, present and prospective business activity in Latin America, and particularly Brazil, Argentina and Chile, as applicable; and

- Diversity of company size, type, location, demographics and traditional under-representation in business.

An applicant's partisan political activities (including political contributions) are irrelevant to the selection process. An interested party must fill out an application to be considered for participation in a mission.

Endorsements/Referrals

Third parties may nominate or endorse potential applicants, but companies that are nominated or endorsed must themselves submit an application to be eligible for consideration. Referrals from political organizations will not be considered.

Costs

The fees to participate in the missions have not yet been determined, and will be based on the number of participants. The fees will not cover travel or lodging expenses.

Authority: 15 U.S.C. 1512.

Dated: April 4, 1997.

Walter Bastian,

Director, Office of Latin America, Market Access and Compliance, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.
