SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background and Purpose

On February 18, 1997, the Coast Guard published a notice of initiation of the Additional Hazards Study and request for comments in the Federal Register (62 FR 7292). The Additional Hazards Study will use information gathered at two public workshops held in Seattle, Washington on March 6, 1997, and collected from other sources including the public comments to the docket. This notice announces the meeting of the expert panel to discuss the information developed during the workshops, along with information submitted to the docket and derived from other sources. The panel will use the information to identify and rank, by level of risk, the hazards related to a major spill of cargo or fuel oil by commercial vessels transiting the study area. The expert panel will also identify potential measures to decrease the risks. The panel will entertain new comments as time permits. The comment period for the Additional Hazards Study closed April 4, 1997.

A brief summary of the March 6, 1997 workshops, which includes potential hazards, potential additional measures, and attendees, is available by contacting the person listed above in FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT.

Dated: April 15, 1997.
