

raised by Hylsa's request for a sales-based no-entry review, because it construed an earlier version of the statute which required that the Department review every case every year. Judicial speculation as to how Congress might have dealt with the problem of conducting a statutorily required review in a case in which there were no entries is no longer relevant, now that such reviews are no longer required by law.

Because petitioners have withdrawn their request for review of all parties for which review was requested for the 95-96 POR, and because the only remaining firm requesting review (Hylsa) made no entries into the customs territory of the United States during that POR, the Department is therefore terminating this review.
