

RCW HCP when requesting copies of documents.

Documents are available for review, subject to the requirements of the Privacy Act and Freedom of Information Act, by any party who submits a written request for a copy of such documents within 30 days of the date of publication of this notice, to the address above or to the Arlington Ecological Services Field Office, 711 Stadium Drive, Suite 252, Arlington, Texas 76011; (817) 885-7830.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Texas RCW HCP is intended to establish Safe Harbor Cooperative Agreements that will result in the development of habitat for use by red-cockaded woodpeckers. These Safe Harbor Cooperative Agreements will provide incentives to develop red-cockaded woodpecker habitat by landowners who may otherwise have reservations about supporting endangered species on their lands.

The proposed programs complement the ongoing development of an overall conservation strategy for the red-cockaded woodpecker population in east Texas by representatives of the Service, U.S. Forest Service, TPWD, TFS, and private industry. Implementation should alleviate the concerns about endangered species conservation efforts by providing private landowners with relief from potential regulatory burdens while promoting voluntary enhancement and restoration of red-cockaded woodpecker nesting and foraging habitat. Red-cockaded woodpecker groups determined to be isolated will be used for augmentation/translocation in recovery, support, or other viable subpopulations.

The alternative of paying landowners for desired management practices could be accomplished without incidental taking occurring. However, such a program would be expensive and monies are not currently available.

Instead, the regulatory incentive proposed here, though it authorizes future incidental taking, is expected to attract sufficient interest among east Texas landowners to generate real benefits for the red-cockaded woodpecker. It is anticipated that 31 red-cockaded woodpecker groups will be included under the Safe Harbor Cooperative Agreements and as many as 10 red-cockaded woodpecker groups could be involved in Isolated Group Cooperative Agreements. Therefore, the extent of incidental take should not exceed 41 red-cockaded woodpecker groups during the life of this permit.

The Texas RCW HCP is cast in an adaptive management framework to allow changes in the program based on new scientific information including, but not limited to, biological needs and management actions proven to benefit the species or its habitat. The Service continues to critically evaluate any potential or real biological costs and conservation benefits of current red-cockaded woodpecker management and research programs. This ensures continuation of activities proven to directly benefit or contribute to species conservation and recovery.

Currently acceptable management activities may be modified or eliminated based upon research findings and/or evaluation of the biological costs versus the conservation benefits. The 1985 Red-cockaded Woodpecker Recovery plan is currently undergoing revision to reflect advances in red-cockaded woodpecker management in the last 12 years. This adaptive management concept allows the Texas RCW HCP to tier to the revised recovery plan upon issuance.

All interested agencies, organizations, and individuals are urged to provide comments on the permit application and NEPA documents.

All comments received by the closing date will be considered in finalizing NEPA compliance and permit issuance or denial. The Service will publish a record on its final action in the Federal Register.
