

Menominee American Indian Reservation, Wisconsin

The Menominee American Indian Reservation is located in northeastern Wisconsin. Based on the 1990 census, the Menominee American Indian Reservation had a resident population of 3,397 and 1,176 total housing units. Menominee County, which includes the entirety of the reservation, had a 1990 resident population of 3,890 and 1,742 housing units. (The Menominee American Indian Reservation and Menominee County share the same outer boundary, but the reservation does not include all territory within the county; the dress rehearsal will include the entire county, however.) The Census Bureau's 1995 official population estimate for Menominee County showed an increase in the county's population to 4,601.

Conducting the dress rehearsal on an American Indian reservation allows the Census Bureau to demonstrate Census 2000 methodologies for reducing the differential in the count among this component of the population. The Menominee American Indian Reservation has a high proportion of American Indians living on the reservation and was recommended by the Census Advisory Committee on the American Indian and Alaska Native Populations.

II. Method of Collection

The Census 2000 Dress Rehearsal will conduct a complete census in the three dress rehearsal sites. In areas containing city style addresses, we will mail the following independent mailing pieces: an advance letter, an original questionnaire with postage-paid return envelope, a reminder card, and a replacement questionnaire with postage-paid return envelope. In areas containing non-city style addresses, enumerators will deliver a questionnaire to each household, to be returned in a postage-paid envelope. Households in these areas also will receive an advance letter before questionnaire delivery and a reminder card following questionnaire delivery. In all areas of the sites, we will visit and collect information from a sample of households that did not return a questionnaire by mail or report their census information by other means, such as by telephone. We will also conduct a reinterview of a small portion of respondents during nonresponse follow-up.
