

are encouraged to apply. Awardees for each study will need to work cooperatively with Russian scientists, and governmental and non-governmental institutions and organizations.

VII. DOE's Role

For DOE to use cooperative agreements for these studies, there must be substantial involvement between DOE and any awardee. DOE established the subject area for these projects, the core tasks for phase I and prepared this Notice of Availability. DOE will conduct the evaluation, selection, and award process for applications submitted pursuant to this Notice. If necessary, DOE will facilitate contact between phase I awardees with scientists and institutions in the Russian Federation listed in Section II ("Background"). DOE will evaluate the results of phase I and, where warranted and subject to available funding, authorize and fund phase II continuation awards. In addition, DOE will establish requirements for data collection and handling. DOE also will consult with project investigators and coordinate annual meetings. Finally, DOE will monitor and evaluate the results of the projects to determine how these studies will contribute to DOE's ongoing efforts to improve health and safety programs for its workers.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on June 10, 1997.

Paul J. Seligman,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Health Studies.
