

El Paso states that copies of the filing were served upon all parties of record at Docket Nos. RP95-363-000, et al., all shippers on El Paso's system, and interested state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protect said filing should file a protest with the Federal Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Pacific Gas and Electric Company; Notice of Filing

June 13, 1997.

Take notice that on June 6, 1997, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), tendered an errata to its market power filing it made in this proceeding on March 31, 1997, which corrects two computational errors made in the earlier filing. PG&E states that the corrections do not change the conclusions presented by PG&E in its earlier filing. PG&E further states that it is bringing these errors to the attention of the Commission and the other parties on the established June 6, 1997, date for protests and interventions so that any party may respond in its reply comments.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filings should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 or 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). All such motions or protests should be filed on or before June 23, 1997.

Protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants
