

the various aspects of quality service; and to measure changes in public satisfaction with IRS performance. This study is necessary to satisfy the requirements of Executive Order 12862, which requires federal agencies to survey their customers about their satisfaction with existing services and to identify services that these customers desire. It will provide crucial information needed by IRS to develop and implement effective customer satisfaction measures that meet the Agency's mandate to improve quality service. The survey will also provide data which IRS can use to respond to the reporting requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA).
