

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:What Are the Two New Cards Being Produced in September 1997?

In September 1997, the Service will begin producing two newly designed cards for specific categories of citizens identified in Pub. L. or Presidential Proclamation. The new cards are the American Indian Card for members of the Texas Band of the Kickapoo Indian Tribe and the Northern Marianas Card for the United States citizens from the Commonwealth of the Northern Marianas Islands. The Service will stop producing the current versions of the citizen identification cards for the Kickapoo Indian Tribe and Northern Marianas Islanders.

Will the New Cards Appear Different From the Current Cards?

The new American Indian and Northern Marianas citizen cards will have a different appearance than the current cards. The Service will inform affected parties of this change by initiating a public information campaign in September 1997.

Will There Be a Change in the Filing Procedures To Apply for These Cards?

No. Kickapoo Tribe members and Northern Marianas Islanders should continue to follow the instructions on the respective application forms when filing for replacement of their citizen identification card.

Will My Current American Indian Card or Northern Marianas Card Remain Valid?

Yes. New cards will be issued using ICPS technology, but the validity of current American Indian and Northern Marianas Cards are unaffected by this change.

How Will My New American Indian or Northern Marianas Card Be Delivered?

The cards will continue to be mailed and delivered by the U.S. Postal Service.
