Railroad Retirement Act contains its own termination provisions: section 5(c)(7) of that Act specifies when a child's annuity paid under the Railroad Retirement Act terminates. Therefore, this amendment to section 202(d)(1) does not directly apply to benefits paid under the Railroad Retirement Act. However, it will affect the inclusion of auxiliary beneficiaries in the retirement overall minimum guarantee provision.

Consequently, under section 202(d)(1), as amended, if the marriage of a railroad employee stepparent and natural parent is terminated, then the steppchild would no longer be included in the computation under the social security overall minimum guarantee provision. Therefore, the Board is proposing to amend its regulations to provide that the inclusion of the steppchild in the computation under the social security overall minimum guarantee provision will terminate when the marriage of the stepparent and the natural parent is terminated.

The Board published this rule as a proposed rule on May 22, 1997 (62 FR 27989), and invited comments by July 21, 1997. None were received.

The Office of Management and Budget has determined that this is not a significant regulatory action under Executive Order 12866. There are no significant regulatory actions under the Regulatory Flexibility Act. There are no proceedings under the Administrative Procedure Act. There is no need to prepare a Statement of Accounts under the Paperwork Reduction Act.

I. Background on the Indiana Program

A. Program History

Indiana submitted a proposed amendment to its program pursuant to SMCRA. Indiana submitted the proposed amendment in response to the required program amendments at 30 CFR 914.16(cc) and 914.16(dd). The proposed amendment revises the Indiana Administrative Code (IAC) at 310 IAC 12–1 pertaining to an exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals. OSM announced receipt of the proposed amendment in the April 29, 1997, Federal Register (62 FR 23192), and in the same document opened the public comment period and provided an opportunity for a public hearing or meeting on the adequacy of the proposed amendment. The public comment period closed on May 29, 1997. Because no one requested a public hearing or meeting, none was held.

During its review of the amendment, OSM identified a concern relating to 310 IAC 12–1–7.1(a), public availability of information submitted for an exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals. The proposed rule did not specify where the information would be made available. OSM notified Indiana of this concern by letter dated June 16, 1997 (Administrative Record No. IND–1572).

By letter dated July 11, 1997 (Administrative Record No. IND–1577), Indiana responded to OSM's concern by submitting a policy statement specifying where all public documents, including information submitted under 310 IAC 12–1, would be maintained for inspection and copying by the public. Because the additional information merely clarified the provision at 310 IAC 12–1–7.1(a), OSM did not reopen the public comment period.

II. Submission of the Proposed Amendment

By letter dated March 7, 1997 (Administrative Record No. IND–1565), Indiana submitted a proposed amendment to its program pursuant to SMCRA. Indiana submitted the proposed amendment in response to the required program amendments at 30 CFR 914.16(cc) and 914.16(dd). The proposed amendment revises the Indiana Administrative Code (IAC) at 310 IAC 12–1 pertaining to an exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals. OSM announced receipt of the proposed amendment in the April 29, 1997, Federal Register (62 FR 23192), and in the same document opened the public comment period and provided an opportunity for a public hearing or meeting on the adequacy of the proposed amendment. The public comment period closed on May 29, 1997. Because no one requested a public hearing or meeting, none was held.

III. Director’s Findings

Set forth below, pursuant to SMCRA and the Federal regulations at 30 CFR 732.15 and 732.17, are the Director’s findings concerning the proposed amendment. Revisions not specifically discussed below concern nonsubstantive wording changes, or revised cross-references and paragraph § 229.42 When a child can no longer be included in computing an annuity rate under the overall minimum.

[SPATS No. IN–127–FOR; State Program Amendment No. 95–5]

Indiana Regulatory Program

AGENCY: Office of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement (OSM), Interior.

ACTION: Final rule; approval of amendment.

SUMMARY: OSM is approving a proposed amendment to the Indiana regulatory program (hereinafter referred to as the “Indiana program”) under the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 (SMCRA). Indiana proposed revisions to its rules pertaining to an exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals. The amendment is intended to revise the Indiana program to be consistent with the corresponding Federal regulations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: September 8, 1997.

III. Director’s Findings

Set forth below, pursuant to SMCRA and the Federal regulations at 30 CFR 732.15 and 732.17, are the Director’s findings concerning the proposed amendment. Revisions not specifically discussed below concern nonsubstantive wording changes, or revised cross-references and paragraph notations to reflect organizational changes resulting from this amendment.

1. Revisions to Indiana’s Rules That Are Substantively Identical to the Corresponding Provisions of the Federal Regulations

   The proposed State rules, pertaining to an exemption for coal extraction incidental to the extraction of other minerals, listed in the table contain language that is the same as or similar to the corresponding sections of the Federal regulations. Differences between the proposed State rules and the Federal regulations are nonsubstantive.

Because the above proposed revisions are identical in meaning to the corresponding Federal regulations, the Director finds that Indiana’s proposed rules are no less effective than the Federal regulations.

2. 310 IAC 12–1–7(17) Exemption for Coal Extraction Incidental to the Extraction of Other Minerals; Contents of Application for Exemption

   Indiana proposed to delete subdivision (17), which requires that information collected under the provision of section 12–1–7 be subject to the public availability of information provisions in 310 IAC 12–3–17. As discussed below in Finding No. 3, Indiana proposed to add a new section at 310 IAC 12–1–7.1 that contains provisions pertaining to public availability of information that are substantively identical to the Federal regulations at 30 CFR 702.13. Therefore, the Director finds that the removal of subdivision (17) will not render the Indiana rules less effective than the Federal regulations.

3. 310 IAC 12–1–7.1 Exemption for Coal Extraction Incidental to the Extraction of Other Minerals; Public Availability of Information

   Indiana proposed to add new section 12–1–7.1 in response to OSM’s requirement at 30 CFR 914.16(cc) that Indiana amend its rules to make it clear that information submitted under 310 IAC 12–1–7 must be held until at least three years after expiration of the period during which the subject mining area is active. Subsection (a) requires that except as provided in subsection (c), all information submitted shall be made immediately available for public inspection and copying and shall be maintained until at least three years after expiration of the period during which the subject mining area is active.

   Pursuant to 30 CFR 732.17(h)(11)(i), the Director solicited comments on the proposed amendment from various Federal agencies with an actual or potential interest in the Indiana program (Administrative Record No. IND–1567). On May 8, 1997 (Administrative Record No. IND–1574), the Mine Safety and Health Administration responded without comment.

4. 310 IAC 12–1–11(c)(3) Exemption for Coal Extraction Incidental to the Extraction of Other Minerals; Revocation and Enforcement

   Indiana proposed to add new subdivision (c)(3) in response to OSM’s requirement at 30 CFR 914.16(dd) that Indiana amend 310 IAC 12–1–11 to add a counterpart to 30 CFR 702.17(c)(3).

   Subdivision (c)(3) requires that a petition for administrative review filed under subdivision (c)(2) not suspend the effect of a decision on whether to revoke an exemption.

   The Director finds that Indiana’s proposed rule is consistent with and no less effective than the Federal regulation at 30 CFR 702.17(c)(3) and that it satisfies the required amendment at 30 CFR 914.16(dd). Therefore, the Director is approving the proposed amendment at 310 IAC 12–1–11(c)(3), and is amending 30 CFR 914.18 to remove paragraph (dd).

IV. Summary and Disposition of Comments

Public Comments

OSM solicited public comments on the proposed amendment, but none were received.

Federal Agency Comments

Pursuant to 30 CFR 732.17(h)(11)(i), the Director solicited comments on the proposed amendment from various Federal agencies with an actual or potential interest in the Indiana program (Administrative Record No. IND–1567). On May 8, 1997 (Administrative Record No. IND–1574), the Mine Safety and Health Administration responded without comment.

Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Pursuant to 30 CFR 732.17(h)(11)(ii), OSM is require to obtain the written concurrence of the EPA with respect to those provisions of the proposed program amendment that relate to air or water quality standards promulgated under the authority of the Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. 1251 et seq.) or the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq.). None of the revisions that Indiana proposed to make in this amendment pertain to air or water quality standards. Therefore, OSM did not request the EPA’s concurrence.

Pursuant to 732.17(h)(11)(i), OSM solicited comments on the proposed amendment from the EPA (Administrative Record No. IND–1567). The EPA did not respond to OSM’s request.
VI. Procedural Determinations

Executive Order 12866

This rule is exempted from review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under Executive Order 12866 (Regulatory Planning and Review).

Executive Order 12988

The Department of the Interior has conducted the reviews required by section 3 of Executive Order 12988 (Civil Justice Reform) and has determined that, to the extent allowed by law, this rule meets the applicable standards of subsections (a) and (b) of that section. However, these standards are not applicable to the actual language of State regulatory programs and program amendments since each program is drafted and promulgated by a specific State, not by OSM. Under sections 503 and 505 of SMCRA (30 U.S.C. 1253 and 1255) and 30 CFR 730.11, 732.15, and 732.17(h)(10), decisions on proposed State regulatory programs and program amendments submitted by the States must be based solely on a determination of whether the submittal is consistent with SMCRA and its implementing Federal regulations and whether the other requirements of 30 CFR Parts 730, 731, and 732 have been met.

National Environmental Policy Act

No environmental impact statement is required for this rule since 702(d) of SMCRA (30 U.S.C. 1292(d)) provides that agency decisions on proposed State regulatory program provisions do not constitute major Federal actions within the meaning of section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act (42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C)).

Paperwork Reduction Act

This rule does not contain information collection requirements that require approval by OMB under the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3507 et seq.). The State submittal which is the subject of this rule is based upon corresponding Federal regulations for which an economic analysis was prepared and certification made that such regulations would not have a significant economic effect upon a substantial number of small entities. Accordingly, this rule will ensure that existing requirements previously promulgated by OSM will be implemented by the State. In making the determination as to whether this rule would have a significant economic impact, the Department relied upon the data and assumptions for the corresponding Federal regulations.

Unfunded Mandates

OSM has determined and certifies pursuant to the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (2 U.S.C. 1502 et seq.) that this rule will not impose a cost of $100 million or more in any given year on local, state, or tribal governments or private entities.

SUMMARY: This document contains a final rule amending the Bank Secrecy Act regulations. The amendment will eliminate the requirement to report transactions in currency in excess of $10,000 between depository institutions and certain classes of “exempt persons” defined in the rule. It will modify (and, as modified, will supersede), an interim rule on the same subject, to reflect the comments that were requested when the interim rule was published.

There appears elsewhere in today’s edition of the Federal Register a notice of proposed rulemaking that would further modify the rules for granting exemptions from the currency transaction report filing requirements. The final rule and the notice of proposed rulemaking are additional steps in a process intended to achieve the reduction set by the Money Laundering Suppression Act of 1994 in the number of Bank Secrecy Act currency transaction reports required to be filed annually by depository institutions.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 1998.

I. STATUTORY PROVISIONS

The Bank Secrecy Act, Titles I and II of Pub. L. 91–508, as amended, codified at 12 U.S.C. 1829b, 12 U.S.C. 1951–1959, and 31 U.S.C. 5311–5330, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, inter alia, to issue regulations requiring financial institutions to keep records and file reports that are determined to have a high degree of usefulness in criminal, tax, and regulatory matters, and to implement counter-money laundering programs and compliance procedures. Regulations implementing Title II of the Bank Secrecy Act (codified at 31 U.S.C. 5311–5330) appear at 31 CFR Part 103. The authority of the Secretary to administer Title II of the Bank Secrecy Act has been delegated to the Director of FinCEN.

The reporting by financial institutions of transactions in currency in excess of $10,000 has long been a major component of the Department of the Treasury’s implementation of the Bank Secrecy Act. The reporting requirement is imposed by 31 CFR 103.22, a rule issued under the broad authority granted to the Secretary of the Treasury by 31 U.S.C. 5313(a) to require reports of domestic coins and currency transactions.

Four new provisions (31 U.S.C. 5313(d) through (g)) concerning exemptions were added to 31 U.S.C. 5313 by the Money Laundering Suppression Act of 1994 (the “Money Laundering Suppression Act”), Title IV of the Riegle Community Development and Regulatory Improvement Act of 1994, Pub. L. 103–325 (September 23, 1994). According to subsection (d)(1), the Treasury must exempt a depository institution from the requirement to report currency transactions with respect to transactions between the depository institution and the following categories of entities:

(A) Another depository institution.
(B) A department or agency of the United States, any State, or any political subdivision of any State.
(C) Any entity established under the laws of the United States, any State, or any political subdivision of any State, or under an interstate compact between 2 or more States, which exercises governmental authority on behalf of the United States or any such State or political subdivision.
(D) Any business or category of business the reports on which have little or no value for law enforcement purposes.

Subsection (d)(2) requires the Treasury to publish at least annually a list of entities whose currency transactions are exempt from reporting under the mandatory rules. The companion provisions of 31 U.S.C. 5313(c) authorize the Secretary to grant additional, discretionary exemptions from the currency transaction reporting requirements. Subsection (f) places limits on the liability of a depository institution in connection with a transaction that has been exempted from reporting under either subsection (d) or subsection (e) and provides for the coordination of any exemption with other Bank Secrecy Act provisions, especially those relating to the reporting of suspicious transactions. Subsection (g) defines “depository institution” for purposes of the new exemption provisions.

The enactment of 31 U.S.C. 5313(d) through (g) reflects a congressional intention to “reform* * * the procedures for exempting transactions between depository institutions and their customers.” See H.R. Rep. 103–652, 103d Cong., 2d Sess. 186 (August 2, 1994). The administrative exemption procedures at which the statutory changes are directed are found in 31 CFR 103.22 (b)–(g).

Several reasons have been given for the administrative exemption system’s lack of success in eliminating routine currency transactions from operation of the Bank Secrecy Act rules. The first is the retention by banks of liability for making incorrect exemption determinations. The second is the complexity of the administrative exemption procedures. Finally, advances in technology have made it less expensive for some banks to report all currency transactions than to incur the administrative costs and risks of exempting customers and then administering the terms of particular exemptions properly.

II. THE INTERIM RULE

On April 24, 1996, an interim rule (the “Interim Rule”)1 adding a new paragraph (h) to the currency transaction reporting rules in 31 CFR 103.22 was published in the Federal Register. See 61 FR 18204. The Interim Rule exempted, from the requirement to report transactions in currency in excess of $10,000, transactions occurring after April 30, 1996, between banks and commercial and other classes of depository institutions at which the language of 31 U.S.C. 5313 is directed.
