

This Order does not, however, authorize NFA to render "no-action" opinions or interpretations with respect to applicable registration requirements.

Nothing in this Order or in Sections 8a(10) or 17(o) of the Act shall affect the Commission's authority to review the granting of a registration application by NFA in the performance of Commission registration functions, or to review the maintenance of registration by NFA.

NFA is authorized to perform all functions specified herein until such time as the Commission orders otherwise. Nothing in this Order shall prevent the Commission from exercising the authority delegated herein. NFA may submit to the Commission for decision any specific matters that have been delegated to it and Commission staff will be available to discuss with NFA staff issues relating to the implementation of this Order. Nothing in this Order affects the applicability of any previous orders issued by the Commission under Part 30.

Issued in Washington, D.C. on September 5, 1997 by the Commission.

Jean A. Webb,

Secretary of the Commission.

Department of the Army

Proposed Collection; Comment Request

AGENCY: Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel (DAPE-ZXI-RM), U.S. Army; DOD.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: In compliance with Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, the Department of the Army announces a proposed public information collection and seeks public comment on the provisions thereof. Comments are invited on: (a) Whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information shall have practical utility; (b) the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed information collection; (c) ways to enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (d) ways to minimize the burden of the information collection on respondents, including through the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology.

DATES: Consideration will be given to all comments received by November 10, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Written comments and recommendations on the proposed information collection should be sent to U.S. Army Research Institute for the Behavioral and Social Sciences, 5001 Eisenhower Avenue, Alexandria, VA 22333-5600 Attn: (Dr. Peter J. Legree). Consideration will be given to all comments received within 60 days of the date of publication of this notice.

Title: Modeling the Individual Enlistment Decision.

Needs and Uses: The career decision survey captures the attitudes of 16-21 year old youth toward service, as well as other available career options. It also addresses qualification for service, primarily in terms of aptitude, and their availability. This administration will be used to identify the items that best predict enlistment propensity, and to segment the population by quality and availability factors.

Affected Public: Individual or Households.

Annual Burden Hours: 2000.

Number of Respondents: 4000.

Responses Per Respondent: 1.

Average Burden Per Response: 30 minutes.

Frequency: One time.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The new data collected will be used by analyst within the Army Research Institute and its prime contractor, the (HumRRO), to investigate the viability of alternative means of indirectly assessing cognitive ability and enlistment propensity. If the collection were not conducted, the Army would not have the information of improved relevance and validity needed to fulfill and improve upon its recruiting mission.
