Atmos became effective; and, the merged company bears the name Atmos. The limited jurisdiction certificate was issued in the above-captioned docket¹ authorizing United Cities to operate the Barnsley Storage Field (Barnsley) in Hopkins County, Kentucky, since it intended to lease capacity to a single storage customer, Sonat Marketing Company (Sonat), whose gas would flow in interstate commerce. United Cities' certificate was amended to replace Sonat with Woodward Marketing, LLC as the recipient of the storage service.² The certificate was further amended, to add to the certificated storage facilities four storage fields in Kansas.³

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before September 30, 1997, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR §§ 385.211 and 385.214) and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party in any proceeding herein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that permission and approval for the proposed abandonment are required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.
