Tennessee states that it is submitting these revised tariff sheets in order to provide additional flexibility to its customers by allowing agency agreements under each of its rate schedules and allowing for an additional agency agreement for Electronic Data Interchange. Tennessee also proposes to revise the tariff sheets to update its agency tariff provisions and to correct certain minor misstatements.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with 18 CFR Sections 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to this proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
