North Safety Products, Cranston, Rhode Island; Including Leased Workers of Kelly Services, Incorporated, Warwick, Rhode Island; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 18, 1997, applicable to all workers of North Safety Products, located in Cranston, Rhode Island. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 4, 1997 (62 46775).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the State shows that some workers of North Safety Products were leased from Kelly Services, Incorporated to produce respiratory and eye and face protective devices. Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include leased workers from Kelly Services, Incorporated, Warwick, Rhode Island.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of North Safety Products adversely affected by imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-33,522 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of North Safety Products, Cranston, Rhode Island, and leased workers of Kelly Services, Incorporated, Warwick, Rhode Island engaged in employment related to the production of respiratory and eye and face protection devices for North Safety Products, Cranston, Rhode Island who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 14, 1996, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 14th day of September 1997.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., Erie, PA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on June 5, 1997, applicable to workers of Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., located in Erie, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 27, 1997 (62 FR 34710).

At the request of the State agency the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Findings show that the petition investigation was conducted on behalf of workers at Owens-Illinois Closure Inc., producing metal cans and lids. The TAA certification, however, covered all workers of Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Other findings of the investigation review show that the decision document inadvertently reported that the plant closed on December 31, 1996. The plant, however, continues in operation. There is another worker group at the subject plant that produce plastic products.

Since the workers are separately identifiable by product line, the Department is amending the worker group certification to limit coverage to only those workers of Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., in Erie, Pennsylvania producing metal cans and lids.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include only those workers of Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., who were affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-33,326 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Owens-Illinois Closure, Inc., Erie, Pennsylvania, engaged in employment related to the production of metal cans and lids, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after February 28, 1996, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 12th day of September 1997.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOREmployment and Training Administration*Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

TA-W-32,487; Savannah Manufacturing Corporation, Savannah, Tennessee;
TA-W-32,487C; Hickory Hills Industries, Incorporated, New York, New York

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 3, 1996, applicable to all workers of Savannah Manufacturing Corporation, Savannah, Tennessee. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 2, 1996 (61 FR 40454).

At the request of a petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations occurred at Hickory Hills Industries, Incorporated, New York, New York when it closed in October, 1996. The workers at the New York, New York location provided sales office functions and designing to support production of children's sportswear at Hickory Hills Industries, Incorporated, also known as Savannah Manufacturing. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers at Hickory Hills Industries, Incorporated, New York, New York.
