

a flange are estimated to be approximately $200,000.

MNGPC states that the proposed conversion of the fuel oil pipeline to natural gas and the proposed construction and operation of the interconnecting facilities and facilities appurtenant to the Gibson Point Pipeline will have no significant environmental effects. Construction related to the pipeline will be minimal and will occur either on the well-buffered property of the Paulsboro Refinery itself or in areas that already are industrial in nature. No new right-of-way is required for the converted pipeline because MNGPC will use existing pipeline facilities located in an existing right-of-way.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should on or before October 14, 1997 file with Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 or 385.214 and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's rules.

Take further notice that pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no petition to intervene is filed within the time required herein or if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the application is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a petition for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission, on its own motion, believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for MNGPC to appear or be represented at the hearing.
