

receives contribution protection for response costs incurred and to be incurred in cleaning up the Site, as well as covenants not to sue from the United States under Sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA and Section 7003 of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA"). The State of Indiana, co-plaintiff in this case, gives similar covenants to the de minimis settlers. Also joining the proposed Decree are private parties ("the Large Volume PRPs") who are obligated under a prior consent decree with the United States and State of Indiana to design, construct, and maintain the remedial action that EPA selected for the Site. Under the proposed Decree, the Large Volume PRPs relinquish their contribution claims against all the de minimis settlers and against any other person not already sued in contribution for costs incurred in connection with this Site.

In return for these covenants, the de minimis settlers shall pay, in total, approximately $5.4 million to the large Volume PRPs. In addition, the United States and State of Indiana shall receive from the Large Volume PRPs approximately $203,000, in reimbursement of past costs and in resolution of a natural resource damages claim.

The Department of Justice will receive for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of this publication comments relating to the proposing Decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General of the Environmental and Natural Resources Division, Department of Justice, 950 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530, and should refer to United States and State of Indiana v. A.H. Choitz, et al., Civil Action No. 1:97-CV-362, D.J. Ref. 90-11-3-603A. Commenters may request an opportunity for a public meeting in the affected area, in accordance with Section 7003(d) of RCRA, 42 U.S.C. § 6973(d).

The proposed Decree may be examined at the Office of the United States Attorney, 3128 Federal Building, 1300 S. Harrison Street, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46802, at the Office of Regional Counsel, U.S. EPA Region 5, 200 West Adams, Chicago, Illinois, and at the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005, (202) 624-0892.

A copy of the proposed Decree may be obtained in person or by mail from the Consent Decree Library, 1120 G Street, N.W., 4th Floor, Washington, D.C. 20005. In requesting a copy of the entire Decree, including all signature pages and attachments, please enclose a check
