

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

Determination of Insufficiency of Assets To Satisfy All Claims of Certain Financial Institution in Receivership

AGENCY: Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), as receiver for the financial institution specified in SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION, has determined that the proceeds which can be realized from the liquidation of the assets of the below listed receivership estate are insufficient to wholly satisfy the priority claims of depositors against the receivership estate. Therefore, upon satisfaction of secured claims, depositor claims and claims which have priority over depositors under applicable law, no amount will remain or will be recovered sufficient to allow a dividend, distribution or payment to any creditor of lessor priority, including but not limited to, claims of general creditors. Any such claims are hereby determined to be worthless.

FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

Interagency Committee on Dam Safety (ICODS); Charter and Operating Rules

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

ACTION: Notice of the revised Charter and Operating Rules of the Interagency Committee on Dam Safety.

SUMMARY: The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) gives notice of the revised Charter and Operating Rules of the Interagency Committee on Dam Safety (ICODS). The purpose of ICODS is to coordinate policies for and provide guidance to all participants of the National Dam Safety Program.

DATES: This notice is effective as of October 30, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Harold W. Andress Jr., National Dam Safety Program, Mitigation Directorate, Federal Emergency Management Agency, 500 C Street SW., Washington, DC 20472, (202) 646-2801, (facsimile) (202) 646-4596 (not toll free calls).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: FEMA's National Dam Safety Program was established October 4, 1979, when President Carter instructed the heads of each Federal agency responsible for any aspect of dam safety to adopt the Federal Guidelines for Dam Safety. This coincided with the formation of FEMA under Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1978 and the subsequent assignment of responsibility for the coordination of efforts to promote dam safety to the Director of FEMA under § 2-103 of Executive Order 12148. Federal departments and agencies were directed to report their progress in implementing the dam safety guidelines to the Director of FEMA. Subsequently, the national dam safety program was codified when the President signed into law the Water Resources Development Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-303) on October 12, 1996. Section 215 of the Public Law 104-303, which amended Public Law 92-367, named the latter Act the National Dam Safety Program Act (the Act), and formally established ICODS. Public Law 104-303 directs the Director of FEMA to lead a coordinated national dam safety program. Under section 7 of the Act ICODS comprises representatives of 10 Federal departments and agencies: the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Defense, the Department of Energy, the Department of the Interior, the Department of Labor, FEMA, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, the Tennessee Valley Authority, and the United States Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission. The Director of FEMA chairs ICODS.

ICODS provides a permanent forum for member agencies to coordinate interagency activities and to identify, discuss, and recommend solutions to institutional, managerial, technical, legislative, and policy issues that affect national dam safety. ICODS has been active on several fronts since its formation, April 24, 1980. It is now appropriate to announce formally its revised Charter and Operating Rules, and its objectives, mission, duties and oversight role for the National Dam Safety Program, originally published in the Federal Register, August 28, 1985, 50 FR 34912.
