flow of children through, State foster care and adoption systems. These data also are utilized to identify State and national trends for the types of children in care, the settings in which children receive care, and the outcomes of substitute care episodes.

The VCIS data are used to respond to requests for current data on children in foster care as well as those awaiting adoption and recently adopted. These data are also used for preparing Congressional testimony and reports, proposing policy and legislative changes, determining foster care and adoption trends and projections, and making budget forecasts. In addition, the VCIS data are made available to researchers and evaluators as well as the media. These data also appeared in the 1996 Green Book, which contains background material and data on programs within the jurisdiction of the Congressional Committee on Ways and Means.

Respondents: State Governments, Guam, Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and District of Columbia.
