SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

A document published in the Federal Register (62 FR 51181) on September 30, 1997, notified the trade community of changes to the prototype National Customs Automation Program test of reconciliation, set forth the policy which makes the NCAP prototype the exclusive means to reconcile entries pursuant to 19 U.S.C. 1484(b) and announced that the prototype will henceforth be referred to as the Automated Commercial System (ACS) Reconciliation Prototype. That notice invited public comments concerning any aspect of the planned test, informed interested members of the public of the requirements for voluntary participation, and established the process for developing evaluation criteria.

Public comments were requested by November 14, 1997. Due to a public meeting (see notice published in the Federal Register (62 FR 58769) published on October 30, 1997) which included discussions of the Prototype, an additional comment period is being granted to allow persons to comment with these discussions in mind. Comments are now being requested by December 15, 1997.
