

reports, and determined that UL has the staff capability and the necessary equipment to conduct testing of products covered by these additional test standards.

Preliminary Finding

Based upon a review of the complete application, the on-site evaluation (review) reports, and the recommendations of the staff, including the recommendation from the Lead Assessor dated August 19, 1997 (see Exhibit 14), the Assistant Secretary has made a preliminary finding that Underwriters Laboratory Inc., can meet the requirements as prescribed by 29 CFR 1910.7 for the expansion of its recognition to include the 174 test standards previously listed.

All interested members of the public are invited to supply detailed reasons and evidence supporting or challenging the sufficiency of the applicant's having met the requirements for expansion of its recognition as a Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory, as required by 29 CFR 1910.7 and Appendix A to 29 CFR 1910.7. Submission of pertinent written documents and exhibits shall be made no later than January 20, 1998, and must be addressed to the NRTL Recognition Program, Office of Variance Determination, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room N3653, Washington, D.C. 20210. Copies of the UL application, the recommendation of the Lead Assessor, and all submitted comments, as received, (Docket No. NRTL-4-93), are available for inspection and duplication at the Docket Office, Room N2634, Occupational Safety and Health Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, at the above address.

The Assistant Secretary's final decision on whether the applicant (Underwriters Laboratory Inc.) satisfies the requirements for expansion of its recognition as an NRTL will be made on the basis of the entire record including the public submissions and any further proceedings that the Assistant Secretary may consider appropriate in accordance with Appendix A to Section 1910.7.

Authority: 29 CFR 1910.7.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 14th day of November, 1997.

Charles N. Jeffress,

Assistant Secretary.

NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS AND THE HUMANITIES

National Endowment for the Arts; President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities: Meeting XLI

Pursuant to Section 10(a)(2) of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (Public Law 92-463), as amended, notice is hereby given that a meeting of the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities will be held on December 5, 1997 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. This meeting will convene to discuss the recommendations made in Creative America, a Report to the President on the system of support for arts and culture in the United States today and to consider specific measures in California for increasing support for the arts and the humanities. The meeting will be held in the Schwab Room of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 151 Third Street, San Francisco, California.

At 9:00 a.m. the Committee meeting will begin with a welcome from Mayor Willie Brown, followed by opening remarks from Dr. John Brademas, Chairman. Executive Director Harriet Fulbright will give a Director's update, and the meeting will conclude with reports by individual members of the committee. The meeting will adjourn at 12:00 p.m.

The President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities was created by Executive Order in 1982 to advise the President, the two Endowments, and the Institute of Museum and Library Services on measures to encourage private sector support for the nation's cultural institutions and to promote public understanding of the arts and the humanities.

If, in the course of discussion, it becomes necessary for the Committee to discuss non-public commercial or financial information of intrinsic value, the Committee will go into closed session pursuant to subsection (c)(4) of the Government in the Sunshine Act, 5 U.S.C. 552b.

Any interested persons may attend as observers, on a space available basis, but seating is limited in meeting rooms and staff of the San Francisco Museum of Modern Art will need to know who will be attending. Therefore, for this meeting, individuals wishing to attend
