

Commission's October 29, 1997 letter order. That order addressed the incorporation of certain Gas Industry Standard Board business practices into ANR's tariff.

ANR states that copies of the filing have been mailed to all affected customers and state regulatory commissions.

Any person desiring to protect this filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commissions Rules and Regulations. All such protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

CNG states that the tendered tariff sheets were filed in compliance with the Commission's Order dated September 11, 1997 in Docket No. CP96-492-000, et al. Specifically, CNG states that the purpose of this filing is to comply with the Commission's directives to remove Rate Schedule OSS from CNG's tariff, and to clarify the availability provisions of CNG's remaining storage service rate schedules.

CNG proposes to: (1) revise the availability section of its existing Rate Schedule GSS to designate Rate Schedule GSS as CNG's open-access storage service pursuant to order No. 636 and Part 284 of the Commission's Regulations; (2) revise Rate Schedule GSS-II to clarify the scope of its availability; and (3) remove Rate Schedule OSS from CNG's tariff. CNG states that it will continue to provide Part 284 storage service under Rate Schedule GSS, and proposes to conduct storage services that have been authorized under Part 157 case-specific authorization pursuant to an individual X-rate schedule for each such service. CNG states that additional X-rate schedules will be filed in Volume No. 2A of CNG's FERC Gas Tariff, once the Commission approves CNG's proposed compliance filing.

CNG states that copies of this filing are being served on the parties to the proceeding in Docket No. CP96-492-004.

Any person desiring to protest this filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with the Sections 385.211 and 385.214 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed on or before December 1, 1997.

Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken in this proceeding, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to the proceeding must file a motion to intervene. Copies of CNG's filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.
