

(4) Where the benefits are needed because the battery or cruelty, separation from the abuser, or work absences or lower job performance resulting from the battery or extreme cruelty or from legal proceedings relating thereto (including resulting child support or child custody disputes) cause the applicant, the applicant's child, and/or (in the case of an alien child) the applicant's parent to lose his or her job or require the applicant, the applicant's child, and/or (in the case of an alien child) the applicant's parent to leave his or her job for safety reasons;

(5) Where the benefits are needed because the applicant, the applicant's child, and/or (in the case of an alien child) the applicant's parent requires medical attention or mental health counseling, or has become disabled, as a result of the battery or cruelty;

(6) Where the benefits are needed because the loss of a dwelling or source of income or fear of the abuser following separation from the abuser jeopardizes the applicant's and/or (in the case of an alien child) the applicant's parent's ability to care for his or her children (e.g., inability to house, feed, or clothe children or to put children into day care for fear of being found by the abuser);

(7) Where the benefits are needed to alleviate nutritional risk or need resulting from the abuse or following separation from the abuser;

(8) Where the benefits are needed to provide medical care during a pregnancy resulting from the abuser's sexual assault or abuse of, or relationship with, the applicant, the applicant's child, and/or (in the case of an alien child) the applicant's parent and/or to care for any resulting children; or

(9) Where medical coverage and/or health care services are needed to replace medical coverage or health care services the applicant, the applicant's child, and/or (in the case of an alien child) the alien's parent had when living with the abuser.

Dated: November 23, 1997.

Janet Reno,

Attorney General.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Office of Justice Programs

Bureau of Justice Statistics; Agency Information Collection Activities; Existing Collection; Comment Request

ACTION: Revision to existing collection: Summary of sentenced population movement—Annual data collection.

Office of Management and Budget approval is being sought for the information collection listed below. This proposed collection was previously published in the Federal Register on September 16, 1997, allowing for a 60-day public comment period. One comment was received by the Bureau of Justice Statistics. Changes were performed where appropriate.

The purpose of this notice is to allow an additional 30 days for public comments. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted until January 12, 1998. All comments and/or questions pertaining to this pending request for approval must be directed to OMB, Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attention Ms. Victoria Wassmer, Department of Justice Desk Officer, Washington, DC 20530. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic mechanical, or other technology collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of responses.

Overview of this Information Collection

(1) Type of information Collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) Title of the Form/Collection: Summary of Sentenced Population Movement.

(3) Agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department of Justice sponsoring the collection: NPS-1. Bureau of Justice Statistics.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract: Federal, State, and Local or Tribal Government. The National Prisoner Statistics—1 is the only national source of information on the number of persons under jurisdiction or in custody at midyear and yearend; the number and type of admissions and releases; the number of inmate deaths by cause; counts by sex, race and Hispanic origin; number of inmates with HIV/AIDS, and prison capacity and jail backups due to crowding.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond. Fifty-two respondents at 6.5 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: Three hundred thirty-eight annual burden hours.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instruction, or additional information, please contact Mr. Robert B. Briggs, Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: December 5, 1997.

Robert B. Briggs,
