

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY*Office of Thrift Supervision*Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

AGENCY: Office of Thrift Supervision, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of alteration of a system of records.

SUMMARY: In accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (Privacy Act), the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) is issuing notice of its intent to alter the system of records entitled, "Treasury/OTS.012—Payroll/Personnel System & Payroll Records," by adding a new routine use. We invite public comment on this publication.

DATES: Comments must be received no later than February 19, 1998. The proposed alteration will become effective without further notice on March 2, 1998, unless comments are received that result in a contrary determination. OTS will publish a new notice if changes are made based on review of comments received.

These submissions may be hand-delivered to 1700 G Street, NW., from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on business days; they may be sent by facsimile transmission to FAX number 202/906-7755, or they may be sent by e-mail:

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Richard L. Abood, Planning, Budget, and Finance, (202) 906-6149, Office of Thrift Supervision, 1700 G Street, NW., Washington, DC 20552.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to Pub. L. 104-193, the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996, the OTS will disclose data from its payroll records to the Office of Child Support Enforcement, Administration for Children and Families, Department of Health and Human Services, for use in its Federal Parent Locator System (FPLS) and Federal Tax Offset System, (DHHS/OCSE No. 09-90-0074). Information on the above system was last published at 61 FR 38754 (July 25, 1996).

FPLS is a computerized network through which States may request location information from Federal and State agencies to find non-custodial parents and/or their employers for purposes of establishing paternity and securing support. Effective October 1, 1997, the FPLS was enlarged to include the National Directory of New Hires, a database containing information on unemployment compensation benefits. Effective October 1, 1998, the FPLS will be expanded to include a Federal Case Registry. The Federal Case Registry will contain abstracts on all participants involved in child support enforcement cases. When the Federal Case Registry is instituted, its files will be matched on an ongoing basis against the files in the National Directory of New Hires to determine if an employee is a participant in a child support case anywhere in the country. If the FPLS identifies a person as being a participant in a State child support case, that State will be notified of the participant's current employer. State requests to the FPLS for location information will also continue to be processed after October 1, 1998. The data to be disclosed by the OTS to the FPLS include: name, address, social security number and name and address of the agency.

We are proposing this routine use in accordance with the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. 552a(b)(3)). The Privacy Act permits the disclosure of information about individuals without their consent for a routine use where the information will be used for a purpose which is compatible with the purpose for which the information was originally collected. The Office of Management and Budget has indicated that a "compatible" use is a use which is necessary and proper. See OMB Guidelines, 51 FR 18982, 18985 (May 23, 1986). Since the proposed uses of the data are required by Pub. L. 104-193, they are clearly necessary and proper uses, and therefore "compatible" uses which meet Privacy Act requirements. We will disclose information under the proposed routine use only as required by Pub. L. 104-193 and as permitted by the Privacy Act.

Accordingly, the Payroll/Personnel System & Payroll Records System notice originally published at 60 FR 13776 (March 14, 1995), is amended as set forth below:
