

Anti-Drug/Violence Program, National Voter Education Program, Children and Family Development, Economic Development Program, Leadership Development Program, and the National Health Program. All of these programs provide a foundation upon which to develop, promote, and manage education and health-related programs aimed at preventing and reducing unnecessary morbidity and mortality rates among African Americans, as well as, improving the quality of life for African Americans.

2. Established itself and its members as a national association with numerous clergy and professionals who serve as leaders and experts in planning, developing, implementing, and promoting educational policy campaigns (locally and nationally) aimed at reducing adverse health behaviors and improving the African American community's overall educational and social well being.

3. Developed a national association whose membership consist of 8 historic black denominations with established linkages to 65,000 African American churches and 19 million people.

4. Developed a base of critical knowledge, skills, and abilities related to serving African Americans with a range of health and social problems. Through the collective efforts of various diverse groups; special institutions, governmental agencies, businesses, legislative and judicial bodies, media and other parts of the community. CNBC has demonstrated (1) the ability to form successful partnerships on mutual education, research, and health endeavors relating to the goal of health promotion and disease prevention in African Americans, (2) leadership necessary to attract minority students into public service and health careers, and (3) the leadership needed to assist health care professionals to work more effectively with African American clients and communities.

This cooperative agreement will be awarded in FY 1998 for a 12-month budget period within a project period of 5 years. Continuation awards within the project period will be made on the basis of satisfactory progress and the availability of funds.
