SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:*I. Background

The Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (OSH Act) authorizes the promulgation of such health and safety standards as are necessary or appropriate to provide safe or healthful employment and places of employment. The statute specifically authorizes information collection by employers as necessary or appropriate for the enhancement of the OSH Act or for developing information regarding the causes and prevention of occupational injuries, illnesses, and accidents.

The OSHA-7 Form can be used by an employee or employee representative to notify OSHA if he or she believes that there is a violation of a safety or health standard or if imminent danger to an employee exists. OSHA uses the information on the form to determine if there are reasonable grounds to believe that a violation or danger exists and to determine appropriate agency action. The form is also used to provide an employer with a copy of any complaints as required by the OSH Act, and to provide local magistrates with evidence of just cause for obtaining a warrant for those cases in which an employer has not allowed OSHA to investigate a complaint.

II. Current Actions

This notice requests a reinstatement of the current Office of Management and Budget (OMB) approval of the Notice of Alleged Safety and Health Hazards, OSHA-7 Form (formerly OMB Number 1218-0064).
