DEPARTMENT OF STATE[Public Notice No. 2742]

Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law (ACPIL) Study Group on International Project Finance; Meeting Notice

The Department of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law will hold a Study Group meeting on international project finance and development Wednesday, February 18 at the International Law Institute in Washington, D.C. from 9:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m. The purpose of the meeting is to review current developments in legal issues involved in overseas project finance, and in particular the effort by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) to prepare model legislative guidelines to facilitate project finance. Related developments under the auspices of the World Bank, the Inter-American Development Bank, and others will also be reviewed as appropriate.

Issues to be discussed at the meeting will include evolving methods by which private and public financing and private sector development and management have been employed for long-term infrastructure projects, including build, operate and transfer (BOT) models. Legislative options to facilitate project design, development and operation, as well as project country regulation and off-shore payment facilities will be considered.
